Any reference to the “main official competitions of FIBA” shall be understood as referring to the FIBA National Team Competitions and FIBA 3x3 Competitions.

Any reference to the “Competitions of FIBA” shall be understood as referring to the FIBA National Team Competitions, FIBA Club Competitions, FIBA 3x3 National Team Competitions and FIBA eSport Competitions.

4. The FIBA Club Competitions are all international club competitions organised by FIBA or its Regional Offices.
5. The FIBA 3x3 Competitions are defined and governed exclusively by the respective 3x3 regulations enacted by FIBA (National Team Competitions, World Tour, etc.).
6. FIBA-Recognised Competitions are all international leagues, cups, games and tournaments recognised by FIBA. For leagues, please refer to the relevant Internal Regulations governing Leagues (Book 1, Chapter 3) or to the relevant Zone Regulations, as applicable. Recognised 3x3 competitions are governed exclusively by the respective 3x3 regulations enacted by FIBA.

7. FIBA Masters Competitions are age-group based international competitions organised by FIBA for players aged between thirty-five (35) and seventy-five (75) years old. FIBA Masters Competitions are defined and governed exclusively by the relevant FIBA Masters Regulations enacted by FIBA and/or by special Handbooks for the FIBA Masters Competitions that FIBA may enact from time to time to regulate the FIBA Masters Competitions in detail.
8. FIBA eSport Competitions are all international competitions organised by FIBA or its Regional Offices involving any electronic or virtual discipline of the sport of basketball. FIBA eSport Competitions are defined and governed exclusively by the relevant FIBA eSport Regulations enacted by FIBA and/or by special Handbooks for the FIBA eSport Competitions that FIBA may enact from time to time to regulate the FIBA eSport Competitions in detail.
9. All Official Basketball Competitions, except the FIBA 3x3 Competitions, FIBA eSport Competitions and FIBA Masters Competitions, shall be governed by the following provisions of general nature and any specific regulations applicable to the respective competitions. In case of discrepancy, the specific regulations shall prevail only if they have been approved by FIBA.
10. FIBA is competent to take any decision with respect to any Official Basketball Competition, including without limitation, imposing sanctions (Book 1, Chapter 6 – Sanctions; Book 2, Chapter 6, article 2-101.c), restricting the participation in or removing teams from a competition, cancelling, relocating or postponing a competition or game(s) thereof, or withdrawing FIBA recognition, whenever a conflict or any other issue arises that, in FIBA's discretion, could reasonably jeopardise the reputation of FIBA, the sport of basketball, the integrity or successful staging of a competition, or the health, safety and/or security of the participants.
11. For FIBA National Team Competitions played under a home-and-away format, all home games must be played within the territory of the National Member Federation designated as the home team. In exceptional circumstances, such as health and safety concerns or as a result of disciplinary measures, FIBA may decide that a home game may be held in the territory of another National Member Federation.
12. The dates of all Official Basketball Competitions are defined in the FIBA Calendar. Other basketball competitions shall respect the FIBA Calendar (see article 1-1).

CHAPTER 2: BIDDING TO HOST A FIBA NATIONAL TEAM COMPETITION

13. Following a bidding process, FIBA appoints one or more National Member Federations to organise a FIBA National Team Competition or a part thereof (hereinafter jointly referred to as “Competition”). FIBA may decide that it will directly organise the Competition. Subject to article 5-41 for continental competitions, the Central Board appoints the organiser of a Competition.
14. As part of the bidding process, FIBA shall:
 - a. Communicate the opening of the bidding process to National Member Federations and set a timeline and closing date for the bids;
 - b. Issue a “Host Nation Agreement” and/or a “Bid and Event Manual” and/ or a “Contract of Assignment” (hereinafter the “Hosting Documentation”) specific to the particular Competition. The provisions of the Hosting Documentation shall prevail over the provisions of this Book 2 and shall be observed scrupulously; any bid submitted will imply a written undertaking to observe all the provisions of the Hosting Documentation with respect to the particular Competition;
 - c. Set up a transparent process for assessing the various bids and determining the successful bid; and
 - d. Require the successful bidder to sign the Hosting Documentation or any other form it may deem appropriate in FIBA’s sole and reasonable opinion.
15. FIBA is the sole competent body entitled to define all of the requirements, rights and obligations issued for each Competition, including but not limited to:
 - a. The timetable of the bidding process;
 - b. The financial conditions;
 - c. The required government guarantees, including financial guarantees, where applicable;
 - d. The hosting requirements in regard to competition and practice venues, accommodation, transportation, etc.;
 - e. Any requirement concerning insurance, medical care and doping control; and
 - f. All necessary facilities and services to be provided.
16. The agreement to organise a Competition constitutes a contract between FIBA and the appointed National Member Federation (hereinafter the “Host”). All parties involved must scrupulously respect this contract.
17. The Host shall respect all provisions of these Internal Regulations and of the respective Hosting Documentation. In case of hosting games of the FIBA Basketball World Cup Qualifiers or Pre-Qualifiers, the FIBA Continental Cups Qualifiers or Pre-Qualifiers, the Host shall also respect all provisions of the registration form. Should the Host default on any of its engagements, FIBA shall have the right to:
 - a. Revoke the assignment of the organisation of the Competition; and/or
 - b. Impose disciplinary and financial sanctions on the Host; and/or
 - c. With or without recalling bids, assign the Competition to another National Member Federation that undertakes to respect all applicable provisions.
18. FIBA will use its best efforts to assist the Host. FIBA may require reimbursement from the Host of expenses incurred through providing such assistance.

CHAPTER 4: PARTICIPATING IN A FIBA NATIONAL TEAM COMPETITION

COOPERATION WITH FIBA AND THE HOST

40. National Member Federations participating with their team in a Competition shall cooperate closely with FIBA and the Host in order to ensure the technical and financial success of the Competition. In particular, National Member Federations shall meet all deadlines with regards to the registration of their participating team, players, coaches and additional accompanying delegation members. Any failure may result in sanctions, such as a fine or withdrawal of the right to participate in the Competition.
41. National Member Federations shall ensure that their teams facilitate the task of the Host, including by avoiding unnecessary expenses.

QUALIFICATION

42. Only qualified teams may take part in a Competition, unless provided otherwise in the specific regulations of a Competition. If required, FIBA may invite non-qualified teams to replace qualified teams that have withdrawn from a Competition or have been sanctioned by FIBA or are otherwise unable to participate. In principle, procedures of team replacement are provided for in the specific regulations of a Competition or in the respective Handbooks/Event Manuals. Where this is not the case, FIBA (or the Regional Office, as applicable) may extend an invitation at its discretion.
43. In order for a team to take part in a Competition, its National Member Federation must:
 - a. Be up-to-date in the payment of all fees due and owing to FIBA and/or its Regional Office;
 - b. Have no other debts due and owing to FIBA and/or its Regional Office that are more than ninety (90) days outstanding; and
 - c. Have participated in the relevant Qualifications leading to the Competition, subject to the specific regulations of the Competition.
44. In the event that a team that is not recognised by its National Member Federation, or whose national federation is not a member of FIBA or has had its membership suspended, takes part in a Competition without FIBA's approval, FIBA may decide that the Competition shall lose its official status and shall no longer be recognised by FIBA. National Member Federations shall refrain from participating in said Competition.

ELIGIBILITY OF PLAYERS

45. The Internal Regulations governing the Eligibility and the National Status of Players apply to all Competitions (see Book 3, Chapter 1).

REGISTRATION

46. All National Member Federations whose teams have qualified or otherwise earned the right to take part in a Competition must submit to FIBA or to the appropriate FIBA body within the same deadline a registration form and a declaration of participation, as provided by FIBA. A failure to abide by the obligation to submit the above documentation may result in sanctions being imposed on the relevant National Member Federation.

WITHDRAWAL OR FAILURE TO APPEAR

47. FIBA may impose sanctions on a National Member Federation that, after having sent its registration, cancels its participation or fails to participate in one or more games of the Competition or in any other official activity of the Competition (e.g. opening or closing ceremony, award ceremony etc.).
48. In addition to any sanctions imposed under articles 2-44 and 2-45, a National Member Federation that has qualified to participate in a FIBA Competition and has failed to register or has cancelled its participation or has failed to participate in the entire Competition is automatically banned from taking part in an official or friendly game for:
- The thirty (30) days preceding the first day of the Competition for which it was qualified;
 - The duration of the Competition; and
 - The seven (7) days following the last day of the Competition.

DUTIES OF THE PARTICIPATING NATIONAL MEMBER FEDERATIONS

49. Participating National Member Federations must respect the provisions of these Internal Regulations and any applicable regulations, guidelines and directives provided to the teams for each Competition. In the event of any violation, the appropriate FIBA body may impose sanctions (Book 1, Chapter 6 - Sanctions; Book 2, Chapter 6, article 2-101.c). National Member Federations are strictly liable for the behaviour of all members of their Team Delegation, whether accredited or not, as well as for the behaviour of their accompanying persons and supporters.
50. A National Member Federation that has accepted an invitation to take part in a Competition by sending its registration form shall be obliged to take part.
51. Teams must be present at the site of the Competition in due time and must cooperate at all times with the Host and the FIBA representatives.
52. In particular, teams and/or Team Delegation members participating in a Competition may not under any circumstances:

 - a. Injury or illness that may occur during a time whilst the relevant person is participating in the national team activity (for players, during the entire Release Period as defined in Book 3 or during any time in which he or she is otherwise staying with the national team and for non-players, for the entire period during which the relevant person is staying with the national team), including during travel to and from the location of the national team activity; and
 - b. Injury or illness that may occur during a Competition and for which the Host is not responsible (e.g. sports injuries that are not due to equipment's malfunction or the Host's fault or negligence).
54. For certain Competitions, FIBA may offer limited insurance coverage to players on the Preliminary and/or Final Team Delegation Roster (as relevant) for the duration of the Competition and a preparation period defined by FIBA as set forth in the relevant handbook, competition regulations, circular letter, or other communication from FIBA.
55. When FIBA offers insurance as referenced in article 2-54, National Member Federations shall enter all information for any player participating in any national team activity as requested by FIBA in the FIBA Information System and ensure that any information entered is accurate and kept up to date. For the avoidance of doubt, FIBA may not provide insurance coverage for any player for whom complete and accurate information is not provided in the FIBA Information System.
56. If a National Member Federation fails to provide the information as required by article 2-55 for any of its players or otherwise fails to provide adequate insurance as set forth in article 2-53:
 - a. The National Member Federation shall be liable for any medical or other expenses incurred by that player that would have been covered by the insurance offered by FIBA; and
 - b. FIBA may determine the player is not eligible for Competitions of FIBA (see article 3-3)

MEDIA REQUIREMENTS

57. Participating National Member Federations and Team Delegation members shall respect the media requirements and deadlines in effect for the Competition, as outlined in Competition-specific media requirements as set forth in the relevant Handbooks, guidelines and/or circulars related to the Competition and communicated in due time by FIBA to the participating National Member Federations.

58. For the avoidance of doubt, any violation of the media requirements set forth in article 2-57 shall in principle be an Administrative Offence, however, depending on the circumstances, FIBA may treat any such violation as a Disciplinary Offence (see also articles 1-165 and 1-175).

CHAPTER 5: TEAM UNIFORMS

[Note - These Regulations are valid for all FIBA National Team Competitions. National Member Federations are encouraged to use them in their entirety at national level].

GENERAL PROVISIONS

59. Advertising on game/playing uniforms, warm-up shirts and tracksuits must be identical for all players of a team.
60. The manufacturer's trademark (logo) on uniforms, warm-up shirts, tracksuits and Team Delegation uniforms (if applicable) must be the same.

62. The two sets of game/playing uniform (home and away) must differ only in colour and shall bear the same markings, including identical advertising message(s) (size and sponsor) and manufacturer's trademark (logo). The two sets of game/playing uniforms may differ in design from each other, subject to FIBA approval, so long as each set bears the same markings (identical advertising messages and manufacturer's trademark, etc.)
63. Advertising of the team's sponsors is permitted in maximum three (3) different advertising spaces:
 - a. On the front of the playing shirts;

69. The uniforms to be worn by the team during the Competition shall be identical to the submitted drawing/design or pre-production sample, and will be verified prior to the starting date of the Competition at the Technical Meeting. 72. During FIBA Competitions, participating National Member Federations are solely responsible for ensuring that their uniforms respect all laws applicable to the place of the Competition. For the avoidance of doubt, in giving approval pursuant to articles 2-68 and 2-69, FIBA does not guarantee compliance with applicable laws and accepts no liability whatsoever in that regard.
73. During the Olympic Games, the participating players, coaches, officials and accompanying persons must respect the Olympic Charter and any other rule or guideline (including without limitation regarding advertising) issued by the International Olympic Committee.
