MUDANDO O PLACAR

All proceeds from the FIBA Open 2025 were donated to Mudando o Placar, a Basketball For Good program based in Brazil that uses basketball to educate and empower young people in Rio de Janeiro's largest favela. FIBA Foundation Youth Leader and project founder Layana de Souza attended the event to promote her work.

PATRICK BAUMANN HOUSE OF BASKETBALL

Visitors explored the Patrick Baumann House of Basketball, featuring a museum retracing the history of the sport, the 'Cinema and Basketball' exhibition, guided tours, quizzes, live art, the Ekball tournament, and jump challenges.

FIBA PHOTO CONTEST

The winner of the contest, Dedy Loy from Indonesia, was invited to Switzerland to visit the House of Basketball and be part in the FIBA Open 2025.

1st place: "I got it Mom!" - Dedy Loy, Indonesia

SPECIAL OLYMPICS

For the fourth consecutive year, the FIBA Open welcomed a delegation of Special Olympics athletes, setting a new record with 13 participating teams from all over Europe and Asia. This event marks a step in Special Olympics' preparation for the inaugural Unified 3x3 Basketball World Cup.
