

Examination Regulations 2023 - 2025

In order to pass the FECC each participant has to attend all three on-site clinics in full and providing the assignments.

To earn the FIBA Europe Coaching Certificate:

1. The overall grade of the candidate must be 4 or better
2. Grade from the "Oral Exam" must be 4 or better
3. In order to qualify for the final exams, the participants' average grade of the following areas must be 4 or better:
  - Workshops, Homework, Paper
4. The grading structure consists of 6 main areas with different values (%). All areas are mandatory.

Participants failing the final exam may be given maximum one more opportunity to re-take it with the next generation.

5. The National Federations which applied for the candidates have to express their interest for the participants to re-take the exam by sending an e-mail to FIBA Europe in January of the year of the next FECC exam.
6. After participants are accepted by the FECC examination committee, the participants have to sign up for the entire 3rd course at the U20 coaching clinic and re-take all parts of the exam.

If a participant withdraws from the FECC, by not attending one of the on-site clinics or not providing the assignments, the participant loses the spot in the FECC. In certain cases, the examination committee might grant exceptions, depending on the individual, but also the overall, situation.
